

Frederick Regional Youth Orchestra's 2010 Summer Music Camp

The Frederick Regional Youth Orchestra (FRYO) Summer Music Camp offers an opportunity for student musicians who have played an orchestral instrument for at least one year to extend their musical training and performance skills through summertime orchestra and ensemble playing. The summer camp is run in a day-camp format in an air-conditioned setting. During the week-long session, participants will study under music educators, Mr. Tom Mitchell and Mr. Nicholas Marini, in large and small performance groups. Musicians will have the opportunity to perform a variety of orchestra music selections, play chamber music, explore music theory, and make new friends in a fun and informal atmosphere.
